Panya Finish Guide

For precision color selection ask your sales representative to see an actual powder coated swatch sample.

Growers Series

These planters are made especially for the "no nonsense" gardener, the gardener who likes to grow stuff and a lot of it. They will hold their fill of dirt and roots without coming apart even fully watered.

There are few arbors in the world to match the style, quality and price of the ones shown here. An arbor can be used as the centerpiece for a dream wedding, to frame a quiet corner of the garden for sitting and looking, or to create an imposing yet inviting tunnel of growing things.

All are powder coated to prevent the onset of the wonderful "aged look". All provide an adequate first step for climbing plants to latch onto and begin their upward journey.

"An arbor has the unique ability to instantly transform the average garden into a haven, filled with life."
