PERCHING BIRDS
COLLECTION
(Patented)

Bird watching is the fastest-growing outdoor activity in the United States.

Based on a survey by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service: 51.3 million Americans reports that they watch birds. More and more people are taking up this hobby as a regular activity.

The demand for bird motif décor is therefore at an all-time high. As a result, we have created this series of decorative outdoor products which celebrate the largest order of birds, perching birds, which are also known as "Passeriforms". In fact, over half of the 10,000 known species of birds in the world are in this order.

NEW! Stacking Plant Supports

Here's the answer to those indeterminate tomato varieties that grow really tall! Sold in pairs, these stacking plant supports start out 47 inches tall. Insert two of them together and they form a support structure nearly 80 inches tall!

Stacking Plant Supports
5915 Galvanized
7409-2 Red
5911-2 Light Green

Stack the pair together by interlocking upper unit legs inside curved open base loops on lower unit.

3 WAYS TO USE THEM...

Use the pair as two separate plant supports.

Leave the units partially open and connect them to form a short or tall fence for climbing plants.
